Descrizione vetrina

I'm Italian, and I'm in Switzerland since June 2016. I live in Zurich. During the first year in Switzerland, I've studied German (level is B2). I also understand french and spanish, so I think that my figure really combines in this international context. I've also started to studying UX Design more deeply and I have now Certifications. I'm an art director and graphic/web designer, I have 15 years of experience in some companies, and I've worked with an artistic roles since 2001. I've started with graphic and web design, after a period I directed my attention to the social media and online advertising, with a special attention for social advertising. To see more about my works, you can see my website: www.francescasanfilippo.it It's not completely updated, but it will give you the general idea of my skills.
